LGBT Law Project

NYLAG has launched the LGBT Law Project to serve New York City's low-income Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender communities by providing free representation and advice on a wide array of civil legal matters and offering group trainings on legal issues affecting the LGBT communities.

The LGBT Law Project provides free representation in the following areas:

- Public Benefits including public assistance, food stamps, Medicaid, Social Security and SSI;
- Landlord & Tenant disputes;
- Housing discrimination based on sexual orientation or gender identity, including public housing, homeless shelters and domestic violence shelters;
- Second Parent or Joint Adoption;
- Orders of Protection;
- Legal name change;
- Health care proxy and living will preparation assistance in conjunction with NYLAG's Total Life Choices Program;
- Other areas on request
